

TOURS

Parajo Valley and San Jose Cider Tour

1/28/20

8:00 am - 6:00 pm

Maximum # of attendees - 53

$85

Includes tastes from 4 cideries, samples at a cider bar, and lunch.

Guide: Ria Windcaller, Cider Chat

Parajo Valley borders the Pacific Ocean to the west and the Santa Cruz Mountains on the east. It is the sweet spot of Newtown Pippins in California. Discover coastal orchard management practices with multigenerational orchardist Jake Mann of 5 Mile Orchards. Enjoy a vertical and horizontal tasting of this same apple with Rider Ranch Cider makers in the orchard. Stops and talks at Serventi Cider and at the 1880 Redwood Apple Barn with Santa Cruz Cider Company and Robbie Honda of Tanuki Cider. With the Pacific to our left, we will hang ten to the right and cruise over to San Jose to finish our day at Cider Junction. Publicans Tracy and Claudia will inspire you to consider opening your own cider bar, bistro, and bottle shop.

SOLD OUT

Enjoy a day learning about Sonoma County orchards and cideries. This tour will give participants a taste of what one of California's premier wine regions has to offer the cider drinker. We'll visit six cideries large and small, including one of the oldest family owned cideries in the US and several with smaller regional distribution. We'll also walk through some of the area's orchards, including one operating under one of the state's first Orchard Carbon Farm Plans for reducing greenhouse gasses.

Tour stops include the orchards, production facilities, and tasting rooms of Ace Cider, Golden State Cider, Ethic Ciders, Titled Shed Ciderworks, and Old World Winery.

East Bay Cider & Food Pairing Tour
